The Ecotourism Benefits of Protecting Poole Harbour as a Natural Space

Mya Bambrick - Events & Education Officer

BIRDS OF POOLE HARBOUR

Vision Statement

INSPIRING HOPE FOR NATURE

Mission Statement

To innovate and deliver bold projects and events that benefit Poole Harbour's birdlife and local community

Core Values

AUTHENTIC | KIND | AMBITIOUS | EFFECTIVE

Recolonisation

Chicks are ringed July 1st

First Breeding Eagles in Dorset

Breeding pair: G466 (F) and G463 (M) released on Isle of Wight in 2020

2025 – One chick (G834)
2026 – One chick (GE38)

Image credit: Forestry England/RDWF

Wider nature recovery

National Trust
Dorset Wildlife Trust
Forestry England
amphibian and reptile conservation
RSPB
NATURAL ENGLAND

Image credit: Mark Singleton/National Trust

Image credit: AtkinsRéalis

Image credit: Beaver Trust

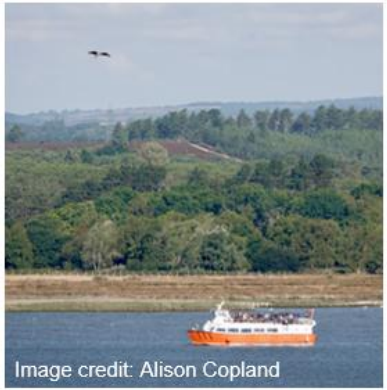

Image credit: Environment Agency

Image credit: Bournemouth University

Image credit: RSPB

Year Round
Birdwatching Cruises
Book now: birdsofpooleharbour.co.uk

Socio-economic Impact

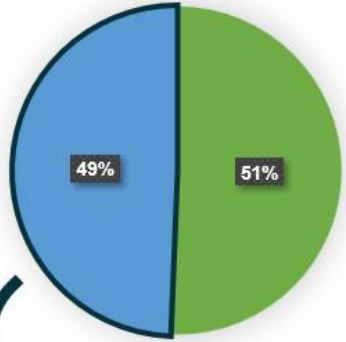

Image credit: Alison Copland

2017
<200 attendees

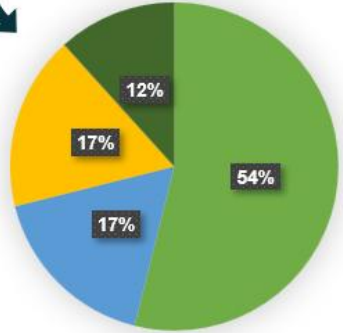

2026
>2,500 attendees

n = 247

Attendee origin
- Dorset
- Other

n = 128

Visit length
- One day
- One night for trip
- Multiple night for trip
- Multiple night for another purpose

Image credit: Poole Gig Rowing Club

meron Bespolka TRUST
ng children and nature together
Compact 34

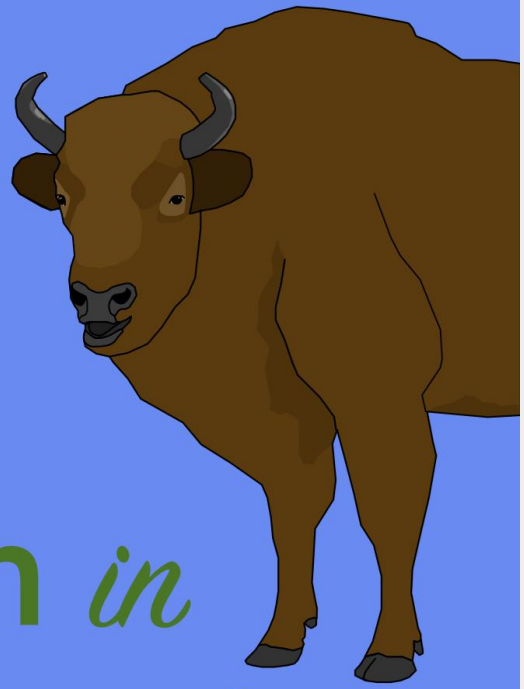

Be the Future of Conservation

BIRDS OF POOLE HARBOUR

Women in Conservation DORSET

by BIRDS OF POOLE HARBOUR